Dear Sir:

Further to the Response to Notice to File Missing Parts of Application filed in the above-captioned case on April 12, 2001, it has now come to our attention that the Verified English-language Translation submitted on April 12, 2001 included several symbol characters which did not print out correctly, or at all. This technical error occurred because the original English-language document was prepared using a Japanese version of Microsoft Word software that was incompatible with a U.S. version of Microsoft Word used during printing of the document.

Transmitted herewith is a replacement copy of the Verified English-language Translation, printed using a Japanese version of Microsoft Word from the same file as the previously submitted document. This is an accurate translation of the original Japanese-language specification. Please substitute this English-language translation of the specification for examination purposes in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Dated: June 6, 2001

Respectfully submitted,

By

Thomas J. D'Amico
